

The Philaethes Society and the Phylaxis Society are proud to announce their first joint symposium.

THE INITIATIC EXPERIENCE

IN FREEMASONRY TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO
Saturday, August 27, 2011

Join us at the Semi-Annual Meeting of the Philaethes Society for a joint symposium with the Phylaxis Society on some of the most important issues in contemporary Freemasonry.

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

San Francisco Scottish Rite Center
2850 19th Avenue, San Francisco

ONLINE REGISTRATION & HOTEL
DETAILS NOW AT OUR WEBSITE

<http://freemasonry.org/>

Cost: $10 for lunch, payable at the door

For questions, contact John L. Cooper III johnlilburnfreemason@gmail.com

650-224-9189

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

The Resurgence of Interest in the Initiatic Experience in California Masonry

Allan Casalou
Grand Secretary,
Grand Lodge of California

Masonic Initiation: The Transformation
Alton G. Roundtree
Noted Masonic author and Prince Hall Mason

ALSO FEATURING

Comparative Fraternalism: The Difference between Induction & Initiation

Jordan Yelinek
Master, Northern California
Research Lodge

John B. Williams
President, The Phylaxis Society

Adam G. Kendall
Librarian, Henry Wilson Coil
Masonic Library

Initiation: The Business in which We Are Engaged

Tom Worrel
Masonic author

*Set Your Face to the East:
The Pursuit of Initiatic Efficacy in Observant Masonry*
Shawn Eyer
Editor, Philalethes magazine

